UNDERSTANDING GERMANY: AN INTERCULTURAL TRAINING

SUNDAY, 18TH JUN 2017, 10:00 AM

Every country has its own culture, rules and customs. Thus, Germans also have their own characteristics and values, for example separating their work from their private life or making a strong emphasis on rules and time-management. In this, they differ from other cultures, which can sometimes lead to misunderstandings. In order to avoid these misunderstandings and to help you settle in, we offer an intercultural training, which will explain the German culture and mentality in contrast to other cultures, give you the possibility to exchange your experiences with others and to ask individual questions.

Spouses of researchers are also welcome to register for the event. Please let us know as early as possible if child care is needed for that day. Please note that places are limited and that they will be given on a first-come, first-served basis.

Meeting point: Euro-Eck, Spechtsweg 20, 44801 Bochum

Costs: 15 €* deposit (refund upon participation)

Registration by: 09th of June 2017 via our contact form or in person in the International Lounge.

* The deposit must be paid in advance in the International Lounge before the registration deadline.
