RUB Research School
Expenditure Guide

Please read these guidelines thoroughly before calculating the costs for your project.

RUB Research School funding only covers the following costs:

1. Accommodation
RUB RS accounts for accommodation costs up to certain amounts. This table indicates the upper limits of accommodation costs per night for different countries (2nd column from the right).

2. Travel expenditures
Travelling in connection with your international activities can be reimbursed, e.g.:
   - Return flights (no business/first class) to your destination, including airport transfer
   - Local transport
   - Travel costs for invited international guests to RUB
Car leasing and taxi costs are only reimbursed if properly justified. All travel costs must be in accordance with the “Landesreisekostengesetz Nordrhein-Westfalen”.

3. Visa costs
Fees for visas and the costs of getting to the visa issuing consulate can be reimbursed.

4. Entry fees for conferences, workshops or summer schools
Fees for attending an international conference, workshop, or summer school can be reimbursed.

5. Child care and family support
You can also apply for family travel and accommodation support – there are a number of conditions however. For help, contact the CCO in advance.

6. Organisation of international events at RUB

   - Travel & accommodation costs
   Travel and accommodation costs for speakers can be reimbursed (see above).

   - Catering
Catering for your international event at RUB can be reimbursed. Please use exclusively AKAFÖ’s precalculated catering offers and the offers of Beckmannshof. Ms Manuela Hurtig will give you all details about the precalculated offers of Beckmannshof (phone: +49(0)234/32-27145).
Only one conference dinner for invited keynote speakers and the organiser(s) is covered. Please be aware that RUB has set price limits: We reimburse up to 25€ for a dinner on campus and up to 45€ for a dinner in an external location (per person for food and drinks).

Venue
Rent for rooms at RUB (“Veranstaltungszentrum”, “Beckmanns Hof”) or, in justified cases, for of-site venues can be reimbursed. Before you apply, ask Universaal for a quotation for a suitable venue at RUB.

Marketing & organisational costs
Costs for posters, badges, flyers and student assistants will be covered by a lump sum (up to 10% of your budget). Please do not apply for these costs in your application; we will calculate your lump sum. Merchandise like pens, post-its, and note pads are offered by RS PLUS. Please contact the CCO if you need merchandise.

RUB RS funding does not cover the following costs:
- daily allowances (“Tagegeld”)
- insurances: It is the applicants responsibility to make sure to have sufficient (health) insurance coverage during his/her stay abroad. Everyone employed at RUB and who is going abroad for more than 6 weeks (with permit of business travel) can contact Ms.Feisel and Ms. Hausemann concerning health insurance)
- staff costs (assistants, translators etc.)
- costs for laboratory equipment, books or any other material costs
